

Lesson	Learning objective	Key question
1	To write a letter in role.	What are the key features of a letter?
2	To create a setting description.	How can I make a setting description engaging for my reader?
3	To write a letter.	What structure and tone should I use to write an effective letter?
4	To write a recount.	How can I clearly and accurately recount an event in chronological order?
5	To understand and use personification as a literary device.	How can I give human qualities to objects or nature to make my writing more expressive?
6	To make inferences about a character's thoughts and feelings.	What clues in the text help me understand what a character is thinking or feeling?
7	To write a sorry letter.	How can I express regret and sincerity in a letter of apology?
8	To discuss, compare and explore themes within and across texts.	What themes appear in these texts, and how are they similar or different?
9	To create an advert with description using noun phrases.	How can I use descriptive noun phrases to make an advert persuasive?
10	To identify and express opinions about a book.	How can I use descriptive noun phrases to make an advert persuasive?
11	To identify and use a variety of sentence forms.	How can I vary my sentence types to make my writing more interesting?
12	To plan a story using the main events of a known narrative.	How can I use the key events of a familiar story to plan my own version?
13	To use dialogue to show a character's personality.	How can dialogue reveal what a character is like?
14	To use adverbials to move between paragraphs.	How can adverbials help me link ideas and paragraphs smoothly?
15	To use pronouns to avoid repetition.	How can pronouns make my writing clearer and less repetitive?
16
17
18		